

you are invited

Knowing
now matters.™

SYMPOSIUM

Keynote Speaker: 6:30 - 7:30pm

Why Knowing Now Matters in My Emergency Department

W. Frank Peacock, MD, FACEP

Professor, Emergency Medicine, Associate Chair and Research Director,
Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, Texas

Educational Programs: (choose 1 of 3)* 3:30 - 4:45pm

1. Blood Gas Analysis: Knowing Now Matters

Patti DeJulio, MA, RRT-NPS, ACCS

Manager, Respiratory Care Services, Northwestern Medicine Central DuPage Hospital

Victoria Nickola, MS, RRT

Patient Safety Liaison, Northwestern Medicine, Central DuPage Hospital

2. C. difficile: Changing Diagnostic Paradigms

Norman Moore, Ph.D.

Scientific Affairs Director, Alere

3. IQCPs: Let's Get it Started

Thomas Koshy, Ph.D.

Sr. Director, Scientific Affairs, Alere

Each presentation will be eligible for one P.A.C.E® credit.

Appetizers and Cocktails: 4:45 - 5:15pm

Dinner and Cocktails: 5:15 - 6:30pm

Tuesday,
August 18th,
2015

theWit Hotel

201 North State Street
Chicago, Illinois 60601

1.312.467.0200

Valet parking provided at a discounted rate

Enjoy an evening of fellowship with industry peers at the WIT Hotel in the heart of downtown Chicago, while learning about important topics in today's changing healthcare environment and Alere's broad, acute care portfolio. Choose from one of three optional, educational programs in the afternoon, then, with the Chicago skyline as our backdrop, join us to mingle over cocktails and dinner followed by our keynote speaker Dr. Frank Peacock, MD, FACEP.

Please RSVP by August 10th to callie.ginter@alere.com

*If you are participating in one of the Educational Programs, please include the program title.